

VOCATIONAL TRAINING FOR EMPLOYEES' SPOUSES

Head-IT Mr. P. Balakrishnan inaugurating the vocational Training programme

The Employee Initiative Forum of DP World, Cochin, organized one day training for Spouses' of employees. The Forum's objective through this initiative was to interact with family members and to also encourage them to learn a new skill or art. The topics were chosen on the basis of the feedback received from spouses.

The Vocational training programme was held on 23 May 2008 at the Cochin Port Training Institute. The first session was on Glass Painting & Flower Making conducted by experienced faculties. There was a special prize for the participant whose work was judged the best by the trainers. After lunch, there was a session on beauty tips for the ladies. Tips were given on how to dress for a party, different hair styles that can be done at home and also on the care of skin and hair.

Simultaneously, programmes were held for employees children between the age group of 5- 14 years. Coloring competition was held for children below the age of 6 years. Drawing competition was conducted for children in the age group of 7- 10 years and 10-14 years.

The QHSE Department had organized a session on Safety at Home & Road, in which the children had actively participated. There was also a special video session for children on road safety. The program concluded with a magic show.

The well attended programme came to an end with the prize distribution for the competitions held.

The young Contestants

Safety Awareness session

Glass Painting Session

Flower Making Session

The magician entertaining our children

Best Performer in Glass Painting Mrs. Selvi, wife of Mr. Anandagiri (Operations Department)

Mr. Rajeev Panicker, Head-HR & Administration giving away prizes to the winners.

From left to right : Vishnu T.R., Sree Ram SobhaKumar, Leya Susan Viju, Sree Lakshmi Sobhakumar, Anupa Shajan, Nihal Iqbal, & Mrs. Selvi